10. Urges member states to facilitate the voluntary return and reintegration of displaced Kurdish populations, ensuring their rights to property and citizenship are respected.

Committee: General Assembly 2
Topic: Rights of the Kurdish People
Proposed by: Finland

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

- 1        Acknowledge the long-standing grievances and challenges faced by the Kurdish people
2        in various regions in Turkey, Syria, Iraq, and Iran,
3        Emphasize the importance of upholding the principles of human rights for all peoples, 4        Concerned about the ongoing human rights violations and abuses performed against the 5        Kurdish people, including arrests, violence, discrimination, and suppression of cultural 6        and linguistic freedoms by various governments,
- 7            1. Condemns all of the ongoing human rights abuses and violations against the 8            Kurdish population, especially those based solely on Kurdish heritage or ancestry;
  - 9            2. Urges the governments of Turkey, Syria, Iraq, and Iran to immediately cease all 10           human rights abuses and violations against the Kurdish population;
  - 11           3. Encourages the United Nations to facilitate negotiations and diplomacy between 12           relevant parties to address the root causes of these issues, and promote inclusive 13           governance, respect for cultural diversity, and protection of minority rights in all 14           affected nations;
  - 15           4. Calls for the provision of humanitarian assistance and development of aid to the 16           Kurdish communities affected by conflict, displacement, and human rights 17           abuses;
  - 18           5. Urges all member states to fully cooperate with the United Nations and its 19           specialized agencies in the implementation of this resolution and refrain from 20           actions that could undermine the peace process or exacerbate tensions in the 21           region;
  - 22           6. Calls for the establishment of an independent and autonomous Kurdish state, in 23           accordance with the principle of self-determination and international law, to 24           ensure the protection and promotion of the rights and interests of the Kurdish 25           people.
- 26

Committee: General Assembly 2
Topic: Rights of the Kurdish People
Proposed by: Niger

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

- 1        Aware of the crisis of the Kurdish people and the continued suppression they face, 2        Concerned about the length of time the Kurdish have been in the position they are 3        currently in,
4        Acknowledging the efforts made by the United Nations already to attempt cease-fires 5        and other diplomatic measures,
- 6            1. Prioritizes further temporary measures to instill peace while permanent solutions 7                    are underway;
  - 8            2. Approves of efforts already made by the United Nations to begin dissolving 9                    tensions;
  - 10           3. Encourages countries not sponsoring this agenda to look into joining the efforts of 11                    diplomatic prevalence in the Kurdish State and Iraq, Syria, and similar nations;
  - 12           4. Urges the United Nations to stabilize the area by contacting government officials 13                    of affected countries and arranging diplomatic sessions;
  - 14           5. Suggests that the issue could be resolved by a territorial change granting Kurdish 15                    populations an independent nation that could relieve Iraq, Syria, and other 16                    distressed countries of the integrative aspect;
  - 17           6. Reinstates that the work that needs to be done to solve this crisis will be long term 18                    and will require the cooperation of all parties, including foreign nations such as 19                    the United States of America;
  - 20           7. Believes thoroughly that if said cooperation takes place, the Kurdish peoples and 21                    other populations in the region will see peace and prosperity between cultures in 22                    due time;
  - 23           8. Confident that the U.N has the resources it will take to resolve this conflict.

Committee: General Assembly 2
Topic: Rights of the Kurdish People
Proposed by: Tunisia, Turkey

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

- 1        Concerned with the lack of rights for the Kurdish people; they have no independent 2        state, and therefore this group of people lives as a minority in many other countries, 3        Acknowledging that there has been violence coming from the Kurdish people as well as 4        the countries denying them rights, creating an extremely hostile environment and a 5        diplomatic minefield,
6        Emphasizing that the Kurdish people have been denied rights for many years, and 7        without an independent Kurdistan, the Kurdish people will continue to suffer,
- 8            1. Suggests the United Nations foster diplomatic conversations between the Kurdish 9            people and Turkey, Iraq, Iran, and Syria, to establish peace between parties with 10           such a violent history;
  - 11           2. Declaring that the only way to reach a true and just consensus is to establish an 12           independent Kurdistan;
  - 13           3. Encourages Iraq, Iran, Syria, and Turkey to stop killing and discriminating against 14           Kurdish people;
  - 15           4. Demands equal access to public services in the countries where they currently 16           reside, until an Independent Kurdistan is established;
  - 17           5. Urges the big five nations to send aid to the Kurdish people immediately.

Committee: General Assembly 2
Topic: Rights of the Kurdish People
Proposed by: Ireland

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

- 1           1. Encourages the United Nations to propose an international law that enforces the 2           countries participating in the discrimination of Kurdish people (Iran, Iraq, Syria, 3           Turkey, etc.);
- 4           2. Recommend other neighboring nations to allow Kurdish refugees into their 5           country temporarily until the resolution with the other countries is solved;
- 6           3. Emphasize the importance of equal human rights to all nations. Reiterate the fact 7           that not living in fear in life is a basic human right that every human being should 8           have;
- 9           4. Reach a consensus with the Kurdish people and the discriminating countries on 10          the land that should be returned to the Kurdish people: 11          a. The United Nations should oversee the discussions with these countries and 12          make sure both parties come to an agreement.

Committee: General Assembly 2
Topic: Rights of the Kurdish People
Proposed by: Ukraine

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

1        Recognizing that Kurdish people still face harassment, violence, and discrimination after 2        decades,

3        Aware that Kurds have not gained independence from the Turkish government,

4        Taking into consideration that there has been limited help for the Kurdish people,

5        Keeping in mind that little to no justice has been offered in cases of discrimination
6        against the Kurdish people,

7        Noting that the Kurdish people can't even live in peace,

8            1. Requests the United Nations to bring more awareness to the issue of the violation 9            of the Kurdish people's rights;

10          2. Encourages the UNHCR to donate more resources to the Kurds;

11          3. Urges the United Nations to fund non-profit organizations such as the Kurdish 12          Human Rights Project for more aid to be served to Kurds;

13          4. Further encourages the United Nations to collaborate with non-profit
14          organizations like the Kurdish Human Rights Project to have more solutions 15          discussed;

16          5. Recommends the United Nations to dive deeper and fund research projects 17          directed toward the violation of the Kurdish people's rights;

18          6. Reminds the United Nations to further spread awareness about this issue at press 19          conferences or meetings;

20          7. Further requests for the United Nations to regularly post updates on the violation 21          of the Kurdish people's rights on their website, as well as providing articles;

22          8. Invites the people of our world to learn about the violation of the Kurdish people's 23          rights by regularly checking the news or updates through non-profit 24          organizations.

Committee: General Assembly 2
Topic: Rights of the Kurdish People
Proposed by: Dominican Republic

Committee: General Assembly 2
Topic: Rights of the Kurdish People
Proposed by: Algeria

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

- 1        Conscious of the long history regarding the struggles and oppressions of the Kurdish 2        people,
3        Aware of the wants of the Kurds of an independent nation known as Kurdistan,
4        Emphasizing that this issue must take some compromise from all countries involved, 5        Expecting further action from the United Nations and other countries that play a part in 6        the resolution of the issue,
7        Realizing that the future of this situation is important and that failure to solve this issue 8        will continue to create conflict between the Kurds and other nations, and may lead to 9        further uprising by the Kurdish people,
- 10        1. Urges the countries of the world, specifically Syria, Iraq, Iran, Turkey, as well as the 11        United Nations and Kurdistan, to work together to resolve this issue;
  - 12        2. Recognizes both the wants of the Kurds to acquire official land as well as the 13        wants of Syria, Iraq, Iran, and Turkey to keep the land that now belongs to them;
  - 14        3. Appreciates any actions the United Nations have taken in order to resolve the 15        situation and keep Kurds at peace;
  - 16        4. Calls upon Syria, Iraq, Iran, and Turkey to portion off areas of their countries in 17        order to make Kurdistan an official country with its own land;
  - 18        5. Emphasizes the importance of the acceptance of different racial, religious, or 19        ethnic groups, specifically in areas that make them a minority;
  - 20        6. Confirms the importance of providing a solution to this issue that will meet the 21        needs of both Kurdistan and the other countries involved in this dilemma;
  - 22        7. Recommends use of a system which charges Kurdistan for the land that they take 23        from the other countries, repaying them for the land and natural resources they 24        annexed.
